

It's raining beds.

By DIY Maven

The BedUP, by Décadrages, stores in the ceiling, saving you 4 m² of space. When you need it, you simply lower the bed to a predesignated height, which makes it unnecessary to move the furniture placed beneath it. An added design feature includes the possible installation of ceiling lighting under the bed. Via.

